

Blocks

Blocks provide an opportunity for children to learn about size, weight, balance, spatial relationships, and sharing with others.

Children will be able to:

- Sort by attribute
- Compare solids by attributes
- Develop strategies for a desired outcome

Supports child development in Preschool Foundations

Social-Emotional Development:

2.0 Interactions with Peers

- Interact easily with peers in shared activities (48 months).
- More actively and intentionally cooperate with each other (60 months).

Mathematics Development:

2.0 Geometry

- Children begin to understand positions in space (48 months).
- Children expand their understanding of positions in space (60 months).

Physical Development:

3.0 Manipulative Skills and Directional Awareness

products designed with learning in mind™